Date of Detention Hearing: January 23, 2012.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

01            FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

02            1.        Defendant was arrested on the current charges in the District of Maryland,
03 making his first appearance on November 21, 2011. He was released to an inpatient substance
04 abuse treatment program in that state, completed the program, and was discharged on 05 December 26, 2011. Defendant was instructed to make his initial appearance in this State, but 06 was arrested again in Maryland on a local warrant.

07            2.        The AUSA provided evidence to Pretrial Services concerning evidence
08 discovered on defendant's computers during a search, indicating a risk of nonappearance and a
09 possible risk of danger to himself and others.

10           3.        Defendant does not contest entry of an order of detention.

11           4.        There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 12 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 13 danger to other persons or the community.

14 It is therefore ORDERED:

15           1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney
16 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 17 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

18           2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 19 counsel;

20           3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 21 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver
22 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection
